FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

WILLOUGHBY RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARDS

CHARLESTON -- Shane Willoughby, son of Paul and Pat Willoughby of Paris, is the recipient of three awards from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

They are the Outstanding Finance Senior Award, the Accountancy and Finance Departmental Award and the Financial Management Association's Outstanding Senior Award.

The Outstanding Finance Senior Award and the Departmental Award are given to an individual who has maintained a high grade point average, been involved in extra-curricular activities, made a contribution to the department and shows promise in his or her chosen career.

The FMA Outstanding Senior Award is given each year to a student who has demonstrated dedication and leadership within the organization.

Willoughby is a Spring 1997 graduate, majoring in finance. He is also a 1993 graduate of Paris High School.

Eastern Illinois University emphasizes distinguished teaching in the liberal arts, sciences and selected professions. A traditional, residential state university of recognized quality, Eastern enrolls more than 11,000 students in undergraduate and graduate programs.

The university, located in Charleston, also serves the region through a variety of non-credit and off-site degree programs, as well as cultural and recreational opportunities.
